Paragraph 6 of the "Rules governing the granting and issuing of passports in the United States," promulgated by the President on January 24, 1917, reads:

"NATIVE CITIZEN.—An application containing the information indicated by rule 5 will be sufficient evidence in the case of a native citizen, except that a person born in the United States in a place where births are recorded will be required to submit a birth certificate with his application. If a birth certificate is not obtainable, the application must be supported by an affidavit of the physician who attended the birth or affidavits of parents or other reputable persons having actual knowledge of the applicant's birth in this country."
